This is the first version of Raja Studio. Although we still not finished, this little project shows how we can make real tabla sounds. This is also a part of our project to make real music practice software - so we need you help us to test this software. We need you to give us feedback (or report bugs). You can help us by testing this software in different ways: - Video recording is missing. Try to play some 1 minute music in set of 10 repetitions. Record the videos with webcam and try to play in High Definition format. - Try to add set of 20 32 seconds excerpts from some raga to the demo. Is the playback of these snippets very important. - Try to show the waveform of a lower or higher pitched part. And what do you think, it is really useful for a programmer like me! - Note that it is possible to change the playback speed. Please use the lowest speed first, then the highest. - How do you like our interface? Is it easy to use? Can you play the tabla samples as you like (silent or have the sound on)? - Did you notice any bug? Report it! - Any comments or suggestions? Open a new issue on github or send us an email. - You want to get a lite version? We have a lite version. I think it is better then our demo version. You can download it from Please consider to rate the app. Thanks.
